COUNTY EXECUTIVE ADAM BELLO ANNOUNCES 2023 HOME FAIR AT MONROE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Home Fair is Saturday September 30 from 9:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

ROCHESTER, NY — Monroe County Executive Adam Bello today announced a partnership with the Housing Council at Pathstone for a free housing information event Saturday at the R. Thomas Flynn Campus Center at Monroe Community College. Parking is available at Lot M.

The 2023 Home Fair is a way to connect Monroe County residents with housing resources such as affordable rental options and ways to repair, buy or keep a home.

“Monroe County offers an array of housing resources from first time home buyers programs, rental assistance and even home repair programs,” said County Executive Bello. “We are bringing those resources together in one location for people to learn about all the opportunities available and find the program that best suits them. I’m grateful to Pathstone, the City of Rochester and all of our community partners for joining us Saturday at the Home Fair to share their important services with our community.”

Participants will be able to speak with HUD-certified housing counselors, legal advocates, community non-profits and municipal resource providers from Monroe County, the City of Rochester, Rochester Housing Authority, Pathstone, the Legal Aid Society, Lifespan and more.

Participants can also take part in the following workshops:

- First Time Home Buyer Services
- Affordable Rental Options
- Home Repair Resources
- Tenant’s Rights

The first 50 attendees will receive a free gift and participants are also eligible for free raffle items at the Home Fair.
